Lab 01 - LaTeX

A simple document

1. Create a text file named “myactivity.tex”.
2. Set the document to class to article with the a4paper setting and a font size of 12pt
`\documentclass[a4paper,12pt]{article}`
3. Include the following package in the preamble.
`\usepackage{xcolor}`
4. Give the document a title,author and date.
`\title{Laboratory - activity 01}`
`\author{your_name}`
`\date{June 2021}`
5. you can print the above title information on the document with the `\maketitle` command. This should be included in the body of the document at the place you want the title to be printed.

```
\begin{document}
\maketitle
\end{document}
```

Note: Every content related to the document should be withing `\begin{document}` and `\end{document}` . That is, those tags define the document's boundry. Therefore, you should work from instruction 6. onwards within the those tags.

6. Insert a comment in the body as follows;
`%This is a sample document`

7. Add two chapters to the document as “Introduction” , “Discussion”.

```
\section{Introduction}
\section{Discussion}
```
8. Add two subsections to the Discussion chapter as “Part 01” and “Part 02”. You should note that you can’t have a subsection without a section.

```
\subsection{Part01}
\subsection{Part02}
```
9. Add the following text to the main section “Introduction” with an indent at the beginning of the line.

\indent Managers need to identify those suffering from negative stress and implement programs as a defense against stress. These programs may reduce the impact stress has on employees.
```
10. Add the following text to the main section “Discussion” with an indent at the beginning of the line.

\indent Today, many organizations and employees are experiencing the effects of stress on work performance. The effects of stress can be either positive or negative. Entress is one such positive stress.
```
11. Add a footnote to the word “entress” as follows;

```
Entress \footnote {The positive dimension of stress}
```
12. Add the following text to the subsection “Part 01”.

There are three primary groups who are mainly experiencing the effects of stress. They are;
```
13. Add an ordered list to the same subsection (Part 01) as follows.

\begin{enumerate}
  \item Top level managers
  \item Middle level managers
  \item Operational level managers
\end{enumerate}
```
14. Add the following content to the “Part 02” subsection along with an unordered list.

```
Feelings of stress could be normally triggered due to following reasons
  \begin{itemize}
    \item long hours
    \item heavy workload
    \item tight deadlines
  \end{itemize}
```

15. Change the color of all the word occurrences “stress” in the document to red. You will have to change it in each occurrence.

```
\textcolor{red}{stress}
```

Note : You may need to install the xcolor package.

```
sudo apt-get update
```

```
sudo apt-get install latex-xcolor
```

16. Include a table of content at the beginning of the document.

```
\tableofcontents
```

17. Use the following command appropriately to separate Title page, Table of contents, and the rest.

```
\newpage
```
